A Note from PASTOR JOHN

“Don’t give up, take up”

Then Jesus told his disciples, ‘If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me.

Matthew 16:24

We often hear of people “giving up” something for Lent in keeping this as a season of repentance and fasting. Our Lutheran tradition does not demand this type of sacrifice, but there’s a value in doing something to help ourselves focus on our spiritual life during this season of the year.

But this year I’d like you to consider not ‘giving up’ something, but ‘taking up’ something instead. Jesus took up his cross, giving of himself for the sake of others, and calls his followers to likewise take up their cross. While it’s not at all likely that we will have a real cross, there is much we can take up to give of ourselves to others.

So this Lent perhaps you can consider taking up a practice, a habit, or an effort to give of yourself for the sake of others. Here’s some ideas to take up something for Lent:

- Take up a time of daily prayer for those hurting, those in need, and for those you disagree with
- Take up an attitude of thankfulness, and take note of the abundance of God’s grace each day
- Take up an effort to be generous in sharing your gifts
- Take up an opportunity to meet a new neighbor
- Take up the time to listen to the needs of others
- Take up the challenge to bring someone to worship

What can you take up this Lent for the sake of Jesus, who took up the cross for you?

God’s Peace,

God’s Peace,

FROM THE INTERN'S DESK – Vicar Jason Xiong

Talking Is Easy...Listening Is Hard!

“Take this simple test: After your next long conversation with someone, estimate what percentage of it you spent talking. Be honest. No, you're already underestimating. How do I know? Because it's more fun to talk than to listen. Talking is like drinking a great Cabernet. Listening is like doing squats ... Listening is like reading a corporate report. Talking is like eating a cinnamon bun.”

- Rob Lazebnik, a writer for the TV show The Simpsons

It is no secret that I like to talk ☺! But I am also a great listener...to people. I am not so good a listener when trying to hear God. I suspect that I am not alone in this either. Do you maybe talk more than you listen to God? For me, prayer is an ongoing conversation between me and the Divine. It is about conversing as one would with an old friend who knows me better than I know myself; as God does. I often will pray spontaneously throughout the day, I have even been known to talk out loud to God while in the car. The trouble is, I often do not stop long enough, stop talking, to hear God's response. Am I afraid of what God might say? What God might offer in response to my talking? Perhaps.

This Lent I am embarking on a personal journey to talk less and listen more, and I invite you to do the same. This will not be easy, as listening is often much harder than talking, but just imagine the possibilities. Imagine what we may hear. Imagine what God is trying to tell us, if only we talked less and listened more. Now, I will not stop praying, but I will intentionally find ways to become comfortable in the silence that accompanies the listening and enjoying what new things I may hear.

Blessings as we begin our Lenten journey together!

COUNCIL NEWS

General Fund Balance Concern

Thank you for your faithful support of the ministry of God's grace in Jesus Christ through Evangelical Lutheran Church of Mt. Horeb! We are writing because we are concerned that while the inclement weather has made it difficult for some to attend worship this winter, the needs of ministry continue. Along with the weather of the past month, we have seen a decrease in financial giving. This follows a year in which the General Fund had expenses that were 8% more than income. As a result, the General Fund balance has dropped to a critically low level.

We are writing to ask you to prayerfully consider increasing the frequency and/or amount of your gifts to the General Fund. It is also a great time to consider using one of the following options to automate your giving:

1. Set up automatic payments through the bill pay service at your bank and inform the church office.
2. Authorize ELC (through a third party called Vanco) to make automatic scheduled withdrawals from your bank account,
3. Online giving through the ELCMH website, GivePlus mobile app, or GivePlus text messaging,

The necessary forms and instructions for all of these options are available in the narthex and in the church office. Contact office staff or any of the council members with set-up questions.

We are fortunate to have a strong community and an abundance of blessings. We continue to baptize and teach, worship and sing, rejoice and mourn together. Your support has touched people in programs for the hungry and homeless, supported our young people as they learned and served, helped our partner congregation recover from the hurricane in Puerto Rico, touched lives of children in Kenya, and so much more. We thank you for your financial support and all your involvement in our faith community.

Sincerely,
ELC Mount Horeb Church Council

BENEVOLENCE

March Benevolence: ELC summer youth programming

Summer will be here before we know it ... hopefully. With a full slate of youth programming at ELC planned for this summer, we have an opportunity to provide amazing memories for dozens of kids in our community.

In addition to our traditional offerings such as Vacation Bible School for young kids, we've got a crew of high schoolers heading to Indianapolis to participate in a YouthWorks mission trip, and closer to home we'll do a shorter version of our mission week for middle school and high school students.

Registration fees cover a good portion of the costs of our local events, and our teens have been fundraising for their Indy trip. But to ensure that cost is not a barrier to participation for anyone, and that we're offering the best experiences we can, we are collecting donations through our Benevolence Program throughout the month of March.

You can donate by placing an envelope in the offering plate and designating that gift for Benevolence, or by using our electronic giving platform.

On behalf of Benevolence,

Adam Mertz

SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES

Dear Members of ELC,

On behalf of the Community Clothes Closet Board, Steering Committee and our shoppers, thank you for your church's support. Under the guidance of Kate Hook, volunteers working in January put in nearly 107 hours of service. This made it possible for 158 shoppers to receive basic clothing and bedding which they are in need of.

We appreciate each of you for your generosity of time to serve this ministry. We can't imagine what we would do without you and the 15 partner churches. They dedicate many hours sorting donations, folding and shelving clothing and cleaning the facility. Please extend our thanks to Kate and those in your congregation who helped the facility.

We continually have a need for seasonal clothing and bedding and ask that you keep us in mind when cleaning your closets.

We are blessed and give thanks for your time and prayers.

Amy Gordon, Community Clothes Closet Coordinator

REBECCA CIRCLE IS COLLECTING BABY ITEMS for Lutheran World Relief. A complete list will appear in next month's newsletter. We especially need baby blankets and diapers. Also, donated adult size T-shirts can be made into diapers. A bin will be available in Fellowship Hall
