A Note from PASTOR JOHN

What happens next?

⁴⁶Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, ⁴⁷praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved. Acts 2:46-47

After the drama and wonder of the passion and resurrection the disciples didn't just walk away and get busy with other things. They continued to meet together and be about the work and worship of God. As we enter this season after Easter, we are challenged to continue in those same practices.

We enter a new season, and with it will come some special events and new opportunities:

- Worship through Music – our Senior Choir's special Sunday and Senior Recognition both on May 12th.
- Volunteer Recognition on May 19th

We look ahead toward summer, where we'll experiment with a different style of worship at our contemporary service – watch for more details to come.

We also enter into the final quarter of Jason's internship here at ELC, which will conclude July 31st. He then returns to Wartburg Seminary to complete the final year of his seminary education. We've been blessed to be part of his training for these past months, and I hope you'll make sure to express your appreciation to him in this final quarter as we must prepare to send him forth into his further ministry.

Unfortunately, we were not assigned a new intern for the next academic year, and we will have to discuss whether we wish to apply to this program again in the future.

God's Peace,

FROM THE INTERN'S DESK – Vicar Jason Xiong

How have you encountered the risen Christ?

⁵But the angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid; I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. ⁶He is not here; for he has been raised, as he said. Come; see the place where he lay. ⁷Then go quickly and tell his disciples, "He has been raised from the dead...." Matthew 28:5-7a

On Easter Sunday, we read of the women's account of the first Easter morning in Matthew 28:1-10. After Jesus greets the women, they "came to him, took hold of his feet, and worshiped him." And then they went and announced to the disciples that they had seen the risen Lord.

In their seeing and telling, the women give us the rhythm of praise we say in worship during the Easter season, "Christ is risen... He is risen indeed!" And this reminds us that we too, encounter the risen Christ in the newness of life that God brings out of death. New life... in our relationships, in our grief, in our darkness and bewilderment.

So often, our extraordinary God shows up in my ordinary life in the most unexpected ways. I've encountered the risen Christ when I've looked into the eyes of a neighbor and truly noticed our journey in life was more similar than different; in the shaking voice of a hurting friend who confided in me – sharing their deep pain; in the joy of youth asking if they can help serve communion on Ash Wednesday because of their desire to be a part of worship. And, I've daily encountered the risen Christ in the expressions of support, kindness, grief, and joy of this congregation during the last nine months of my internship here at ELC.

How has the risen Christ been revealed to you? What unexpected ways has, and will, Christ show up, speaking your name in love?

BENEVOLENCE

This month, the Benevolence spotlight goes to two local charities that are new on the line-up. FairShare CSA Coalition and Healthy Food for All. The common theme with both of these groups is more than just the obvious: healthy food. Both groups challenge us to think about the food we eat and how to ensure it's available for as many people as possible with the lowest impact on the environment.

Most of us are familiar with the phrase “don’t waste food; people are starving”. Have you ever thought about what happens when food is discarded on a larger scale than in just your own home? Did you know that (according to the EPA) there is more food discarded into landfills than any other single material? Healthy Food for All is a program that is working to tackle issues related to food distribution and food waste. Volunteers collect excess food from local farms and prepared food from corporate cafeterias. The food is then cleaned and repackaged in the FEED kitchen in Madison and then distributed to food pantries.

Living in Wisconsin near so many farms is wonderful! Who doesn't enjoy stopping by the farmers' market? Many people here at ELC belong to CSA farms to purchase fresh, local produce. But what if you live on a limited budget? FairShare CSA runs a program called Partner Shares. Partner Shares provides financial assistance to limited income folks so that they can purchase local, fresh vegetables. FairShare also supports farmers: they run workshops and conferences and events to help farmers learn from each other.

During the month of May, we'll collect donations for Healthy Food for All and FairShare CSA. Please consider making a gift during Offering and designate your funds for Benevolence or donating via our Give Plus+ app.
