A Note from PASTOR JOHN

Two things drew me to the poem below this day. First of all, as I write this, the temperature outside reads -13 degrees, and so thoughts of a summer day are welcome, but secondly because the poet, Mary Oliver, passed away recently. While her work is not theological, it calls to mind many questions of faith and life. Oliver's final question: "Tell me, what is it you plan to do with your one wild and precious life?" echoes in my mind the prophet Isaiah: Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which does not satisfy? (Isaiah 55:2) Too often in recent months I've been reminded of the uncertainty and the limits of our days here, and keep hearing those questions in different forms. How will I live with faith, love, purpose and joy in the gift of this day? How will you?

The Summer Day by Mary Oliver

Who made the world? Who made the swan, and the black bear?
Who made the grasshopper?

This grasshopper, I mean— the one who has flung herself out of the grass, the one who is eating sugar out of my hand, who is moving her jaws back and forth instead of up and down— who is gazing around with her enormous and complicated eyes. Now she lifts her pale forearms and thoroughly washes her face.

Now she snaps her wings open, and floats away.

I don't know exactly what a prayer is.

I do know how to pay attention, how to fall down into the grass, how to kneel down in the grass,
how to be idle and blessed, how to stroll through the fields,
which is what I have been doing all day.

Tell me, what else should I have done?

Doesn't everything die at last, and too soon?

Tell me, what is it you plan to do with your one wild and precious life?

"The Summer Day" by Mary Oliver, from The Truro Bear and Other Adventures: Poems and Essays. © Beacon Press, 2008.

God's Peace,

STAR Words for 2019...did you receive your STAR?

On Epiphany Sunday - the day we celebrate the wise men following the star to find Jesus, we started what we hope might become a new annual tradition for the good people of ELC. From a selection of over 340 different words, each worshipper reached in a basket and drew a star on which a word was printed: STAR Words. The star can be a reminder that God's light shines in the darkness.

The word is your word for the year. The words are meant to open up your prayer life and help you see new ways in which God may be at work in your life, revealed through reflection and time spent with your STAR Word. I ask you to reflect on your word for the coming year. You are invited to ponder what significance this word might have in your life, and how God might be speaking to you through that simple message.

Put your STAR Word where you can see it and remember it. Maybe on your bathroom mirror or your refrigerator. Maybe on, or next to, your computer. Ponder it over the next year. Let the word form your prayer life however it may do so. Let the word bring you new insights into who you are, or how you are in relationship with God and other people. If you don't like the STAR Word you drew, maybe that is an important place to begin. Why don't you like it? But, also, will you still dislike it after a year of living with it and letting it pray through you?

Of course, like any other gift, star gifts can either be received with joy or discarded and forgotten. You will need to be intentional about your response to your star gift. Will your paper star be stuffed into a pocket or jammed into the bottom of a purse, never to be considered again? Or will that word be considered an opportunity - a chance to reflect on how God speaks? What might we learn from one word? What new ideas might evolve, what treasured wisdom might be recognized?

You will also have an opportunity at our next Wednesdays with Luther event on February 6 to make something a little more permanent to help you remember your word for the year.

My word? "Leniency." I'm sure I'll share more in future months how God is speaking to me through this word. For now I'm remaining "open" to the movement of the Holy Spirit.

Epiphany is the celebration of God's presence breaking through to shine as a light in the darkness. A star led the wise ones to Jesus, the incarnate word made flesh, and they found the living presence of God. May your STAR Word lead you to new insights of God working in and through you this year.

February Blessings!

Vicar Jason Xiong, Pastoral Intern

Get to Know Our Compassion Kids

Through our Sunday School, youth ministries, and Agape preschool, we see hundreds of area children roam the halls of ELC every month. Two more kids we hold close to our hearts live far, far away. They are Vanesa and Simon, children we sponsor through our commitment to Compassion International, which provides educational, medical and spiritual resources in distant corners of the world.

We have proudly sponsored Vanesa for most of the six years we've been working with Compassion, She's 13 and a seventh-grader in a mountainous community in central Mexico called Tlaltepango, home to approximately 1,800 residents. For her family, Vanesa carries water, cleans, and runs errands. For fun, she likes to do arts and crafts, listen to Bible stories, participate in service activities, reads, play basketball and play with dolls. Our sponsorship allows the staff of Discipular Para Conquistar to provide Vanesa with Bible education, health screenings, nutrition and physical activities, community service, reading and writing workshops, school supplies, tutoring, camps, games, arts and crafts.

Simon, 6, is a kindergartner in Africa - specifically, the 11,000-person village of Kasota in Tanzania, not far from Lake Victoria. He has family duties similar to Vanesa's, and he enjoys playing ball games. There, typical houses are constructed of dirt floors, mud-brick walls and tin roofs. The regional diet consists of beans, cassava, cereal, maize and millet. Our sponsorship allows the staff of AICT Kasota Geita Student Center to provide Simon with Bible teaching, growth monitoring, health screening, counseling and testing for HIV/AIDS, hygiene and basic life-skills training, schoolbooks, uniforms, tutoring, field trips, art and music activities, games, birthday celebrations and service opportunities.

Our commitment to these two children makes a difference not just for them, but for their families -- and for all of us. Compassion makes it easy to interact with our sponsored children, to share our experiences with theirs and vice versa, through letters and online communication. Every year, we make a commitment of $38 per month per child to provide them a foundation that will last a lifetime. Please consider a gift to Benevolence throughout the month of February to continue this tradition, and speak with members of the Social Action Ministry Team about how you can write letters to our kids and build relationships with them through our church ministries.

On behalf of Benevolence,

Adam Mertz
