A Note from PASTOR JOHN

Were you there?

Were you there when they crucified my Lord?

Were you there when they crucified my Lord?

Oh, sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble.

Were you there when they crucified my Lord?

The soulful, haunting nature of this old spiritual has always spoken to me during this season. As it traces the progression of the passion story it forces me to reflect on the story of a love so powerful that Jesus would face the very worst that humanity could do, all so that we might be redeemed. Of course, in a historical sense, we weren't 'there' on that day in Jerusalem, but in a very real sense we are still witnesses to all that happened. Perhaps the harder questions for us are "Where were you?" and "Where are you?" When Jesus' died on the cross, many of his disciples had left him. They fled for comfort, safety, perhaps not willing to face the reality of the world. When their friend needed them, they weren't there.

How about us? Perhaps one of the most important things we can do for our families, friends, community, and congregation is to show up. All my life I'll never forget driving home to our first parsonage and seeing my son staring out the upstairs window watching for me to come home. He wasn't about to go to bed until he knew I was there. It might not be that obvious every day, but being there is still one of the greatest gifts we can give to each other. The old song doesn't end with the cross. The final verse is "Were you there when he rose up from the tomb?" The joy that comes when new life arrives is worth every dark Good Friday.

Where are you this season? Will you walk with Jesus, and with his people? Will you show up for your family, for your community of faith, and for the Lord who loves you? Those are sometimes hard questions, but what is never a question is "Where is Jesus?" Jesus has promised to be with us always. Through the darkest days, and the brightest mornings, Jesus has been, and will be there. Nothing, not even death, can overpower the strength of Christ's love. That is the good news of Easter!

God's Peace,

FROM THE INTERN'S DESK – Vicar Jason Xiong

Where are we headed?

“³For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, ⁴and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, ⁵and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. ⁶Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. ⁷Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles.” 1 Corinthians 15:3-7

As we enter the final weeks of Lent the question for me that keeps appearing in my mind is where exactly are we headed?

As people of God I am keenly aware that we are ultimately headed to the cross – the cross in which Jesus is crucified and subsequently raised from. The above passage from Paul has been guiding me on this journey over this Lenten season. In this portion of his first letter to the church at Corinth, Paul is reminding all people what Jesus, what God, has done for us. For me, it is the last verse that is most important here in discerning where we are headed. Jesus appears to “all the apostles” and therefore, from there, Jesus appears to all of us. We are all apostles. We are all messengers of the Gospel, of the Good News that Jesus died on a wooden cross for us.

I find peace and hope in the resurrection of Jesus and I pray that you do as well. In that hope we are reminded of the unconditional love that God has for all of us and for all of creation. God has done wondrous things and in response we to are called to do wondrous things and share the hope we have with the world.

Blessings as we begin our Lenten journey together!

AGAPE GREETINGS!

Spring break starts tomorrow and it could not come at a better time! We are all ready for a break and relaxation. Let's hope mother-nature cooperates and provides some warm days and sunshine. We are all ready for spring!

The 3K children really enjoyed sharing their special music with all of you on March 3rd. Thank you for being such a wonderful audience! We will continue on this tradition with an annual spring performance.

Thank you to everyone who supported our spring fundraiser, butter braid frozen pastries. We raised over $6000.00 and will be able to purchase new gross motor toys for our playground area with our earnings from the total sales.

When classes resume in April, we will be enjoying many fun activities and projects and hopefully a lot of outside time! We will also explore the Cave of the Mounds in early May with all of the 4K classes in the Mount Horeb Area School District.

Enrollment is underway, but we still have openings in the morning and afternoon 3K classes! Please spread the word to family and friends about our program.

Blessings and Happy Easter,

COUNCIL NEWS

NOTICE: COUNCIL MEETINGS are moving to the third Monday of every Month beginning with the April meeting. The April meeting will be held April 15, 2019 at 6:30 pm.

We are fortunate to have a strong community and an abundance of blessings. We thank you for your financial support and all your involvement in our faith community. With the weather of the past month, we have seen a decrease in financial giving. This follows a year in which the General Fund expenses were 8% more than income. As a result, the General Fund balance has dropped to a critically low level.

We are asking if you would prayerfully consider increasing the frequency and/or amount of your gifts to the General Fund. It is also a great time to consider using one of the automated giving options that are available.

Sincerely,
ELC Mt Horeb Church Council

NEWS FROM THE INREACH/OUTREACH MINISTRY: Each Wednesday during lent, there is a midweek worship service offered at 11:00 AM. Following worship, a luncheon is served in Fellowship Hall. There is a Lenten Luncheon signup sheet posted near the church office (a yellow poster board) if you wish to volunteer to work or to donate baked goods. A free-will offering is taken to help with the cost of the lunches.

The Inreach/Outreach Ministry will be visiting elderly or shut-in members of our church during Lent. We will visit with the members and present them with a small gift made by the Sunday school children or the Agape preschool children. If you know of anyone who may not be on the list that would like a visit from one of our members, please forward their name to Pastor Twiton.

BENEVOLENCE

Backpacks Boost Nutrition as Well as Education

Have you ever had to choose between buying groceries to get you through the weekend or putting gas in your car? Have you put off a meal so you could make it an extra day to pay the rent?

And no, we're not talking about your penny-pinching, ramen-eating college days, but a way of life as an adult -- as a parent of a child or children you love.

The toll of those decisions on your state of mind can be weighty, more bothersome than the passing hunger. That's why the concept of food insecurity has become such a big focal point, and why reducing or eliminating that struggle can make all the difference for a kid trying to make her or his way in the world.

We're fortunate to have a very effective program offered through the Mount Horeb Area School District that looks out for families who find themselves in this position. Each week, this program provides a backpack with food for each participant, along with nutrition education and meal ideas. As funds exist, they also provide a voucher for fresh dairy, meat, and produce from Kwik Trip.

At ELC, we've been solid supporters of this cause, most recently raising about $2,500 through freewill donations at the Christmas at ELC program last December. With summer looming, and the prospect of no more access to free or reduced-price lunches, the time is right to step forward with another financial gift.

Throughout the month of April, we'll be collecting donations to the backpack food program through our Benevolence Program. Please consider giving via the offering plate (be sure to mark your gift for Benevolence), online or the Give Plus app.

On behalf of Benevolence,

Adam Mertz
