A Note from PASTOR JOHN

Be with us through this season

O Lord, throughout these forty days you prayed and kept the fast;
Inspire repentance for our sin, and free us from our past.
Be with us through this season, Lord, and all our earthly days,
That when the final Easter dawns, we join in heaven's praise."

O Lord Throughout These Forty Days LBW #99 (vs 1 & 4)

For all of the month of March we are in the midst of the Lenten journey. We follow Jesus' story as his path leads to Jerusalem and the cross. That journey would reveal the best and the worst of humankind, but most of all it would show that the ultimate power in all creation was not on the side of death.

The people Jesus met would be afflicted with hunger, disease, guilt, and pain, and the world would be beset by division, oppression, hatred, and fear. Jesus walked among those people, people much like us, and proclaimed that God's power, the power of love, grace, and forgiveness, could never be overcome by all those forces that robbed life of joy.

The past year our earthly days have been beset by nearly all those same things. We've obviously seen disease, death, division and so much more, but we walk with the same Lord. And as we go through this season we remember that we walk toward Easter's dawn, and a new beginning.

That new beginning can fill our hearts even now. Even the world around us will begin to show signs of life soon as spring arrives. The power of the pandemic is begging to recede. I am personally so grateful to have received the first dose of vaccine, and I'm heartened to hear that others are receiving this as well. A brighter day is on the way, even while we struggle some days now.

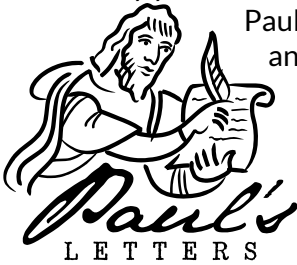

Most of all we rejoice that the true celebration of life will arrive no matter what, as we look ahead to proclaiming Christ's victory at Easter!

God's Peace

LENT 2021

DEAR PAUL”

After many years of writing letters to the early Christian churches, Paul is still at it in Heaven, reading letters from, and answering, 21st century folks. Paul's sometimes humorous, always heartfelt responses to modern-day issues and questions reflect the same message of grace, love and Christian unity he shared with the church at Ephesus 2000 years ago.

This series of brief weekly plays will be presented online as a way of introducing the lessons from the Letter to the Ephesians. If you would like to take part in a zoom recording of one of these plays, please contact Pastor John.

These Lenten worship services will also be available online beginning at 11:00am each Wednesday.

PASTORAL INTERN

Dear Siblings in Christ,

As we continue to move through our Lenten journey, we look forward to the resurrection hope of Easter. This year, the hope seems just a bit more palpable as we hear of more and more individuals receiving the much longed for vaccine. I commend to you this online prayer gallery (<http://www.claverjesuit.org/prayergallery.html>) you may use in your own meditations throughout this season and beyond. Beautiful artwork is paired with prayerful words to ponder.

I again want to thank you all for your support of last month's benevolence. Through my sharing of my own experiences and my own passions of social justice, I have had individuals ask me for resources and book suggestions. Following are a list of books I would highly recommend to anyone who is interested in deepening your own knowledge and ponderings in these topics as well.

- Faith in Action: A Handbook for Activists, Advocates, and Allies - by Fortress Press
 - Give snapshots of many different topics, with some statistics, as well as actionable steps to take to be an advocate & ally for each topic.

- Strength for the Struggle - by Joseph Ellwanger
 - The author is a retired Lutheran pastor and shares the experiences as his congregations (in Birmingham, AL & Milwaukee, WI) looked to filling the needs of their community and world with those in their communities.
- Dear Church: A Love Letter from a Black Preacher to the Whitest Denomination in the US - by Lenny Duncan
 - The author, a non-straight black Lutheran pastor, writes of his experiences as a black man in the Lutheran Church and calls people of faith to action.
- I'm Still Here: Black Dignity in a World Made for Whiteness - by Austin Channing Brown
 - This is a personal account of what growing up as a black, Christian, woman in America was like and speaks on how the ideals of 'diversity' often fall short.
- Between the World and Me - by Ta-Nehisi Coates
 - This book was written as a letter to the author's son explaining his own experiences growing up as a black man as well as give details of our country's history that have profoundly impacted people of color.
- The Cross and the Lynching Tree - by James Cone
 - Theologian, James Cone, explores the interconnection of the symbols of the cross and the lynching tree within history and in the lives of people of color.

There are of course many more, great books out there on these topics but these are some of the books I have personally read and found impactful. If anyone would like to discuss any of these books or topics or have other good book suggestions, please let me know! These topics are important to me as I continue to strive to be a witness of God's love out in the world.

Peace,
 Intern Tamara

WARM GREETINGS from AGAPE!

After a very cold and snowy February, I am sure we are all wishing for spring-like weather to show up very soon! Preschool activities for the month of March will include celebrating Dr. Seuss Birthday, St. Patrick's Day and learning about night animals. I am sure there will be a lot of fun learning and exciting adventures each day!

Enrollment for the 2021-2022 school year started at the end of February for our 3-year-old program. The forms for enrollment are available on our website www.agapechristianpreschool.com or arrangements can be made to pick up packets during preschool hours. Our 4K program, in collaboration with the MHASD, is also enrolling students for the upcoming school year. 4K registration should be completed on the school district website, found at: Mount Horeb 4K | Mount Horeb Area School District | Mount Horeb WI 53572 (mounthorebschools.org)

Ms. Wendy continues to provide wonderful music and activities for all our students. We watch her awesome videos thru YouTube on our fun big screens in the classrooms and have so much fun!

Due to Covid, the Agape Board of Directors decided to not participate in the annual Butter Braid Frozen Pastries fundraiser this school year. We hope to have this available next school year as we continue to learn and navigate the Covid-19 virus. Thank you for your support!

Blessings,

GENERAL INFORMATION

All Women are invited to the Barneveld Conference Spring Gathering on Saturday, March 20 from 10 to noon.

WELCA's Synodical Women's Organization is hosting another Zoom book discussion. It will be held on Thurs., March 25th, at 7 pm and will last around 90 minutes. We will be reading Noted! by Kathy J. Jacobson. Janna Smith will be leading the discussion and the author, who lives within our South-Central synod, will also be present. If you follow The Word in Season, Pastor Jacobson has written the daily devotionals for Feb. 18th – March 3rd.

Short updated bio—Kathy J. Jacobson is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Madison and Wartburg Theological Seminary, Dubuque, Iowa. She has worked counseling troubled youth, has been an at-home mom, served the church as a deacon in youth and Christian education, worked in campus ministry, volunteered as a hospice chaplain, and served as an ELCA pastor in rural Wisconsin for seventeen years until her recent retirement. Kathy is an avid traveler, having visited all fifty states and six continents. She loves reading, hiking and the Wisconsin Badgers. She resides with her husband, Jeff, in Monona, WI, where she is focusing on writing projects and being a grandma.

Description of Noted! *Jillian Johnson, a life-long Lutheran, single mother and nurse living and working in Wisconsin, is taking a leap of faith and pursuing her longtime desire to become a writer. Tired of the snow and cold of the Midwest, she starts anew in sunny Los Angeles, where she meets many new people, including her boss who only communicates with her via notes and who is also connected in an unusual way to her past, even though they have never met. Jillian is a very faithful woman, yet she is not perfect. But through thick and thin, her faith in God helps her maneuver all types of people and situations, and enables her to help others— sometimes just by being herself. The love, kindness, forgiveness and grace she shows to others are often life-changing—for her, and for them. Noted!, the first of the five-book series.*

THANK YOU FROM THE RED CROSS

Thank you so much for a great blood drive. Without your help, we wouldn't be able to meet the needs of hospitals as many businesses, schools and colleges are still working and learning remotely and that impacts the places that we can go. Your drive helped collect 86 pints of blood from 76 donors, 60 whole blood and 26 power reds with 4 first time donors and could help up to 258 people. I truly appreciate you helping with a blood drive during trying times.

Diane Nichols | Donor Recruitment Account Manager
American Red Cross Blood Services

Dear Members of ELC,

On behalf of the Neighbors Helping Neighbors Board, Steering Committee and our shoppers, thank you for your church's support. Under the guidance of Kate Hook, volunteers working in January put in 70 hours of service. This made it possible for 121 shoppers to receive basic clothing and bedding which they are in need of.

We appreciate each of you for your generosity of time to serve this ministry. We can't imagine what we would do without you and the 15 partner churches. They dedicate many hours sorting donations, folding and shelving clothing and cleaning the facility. Please extend our thanks to Kate and those in your congregation who helped the facility.

Additionally, we are very grateful for the years of service Kate has given to the Clothes Closet as she steps down as the liaison. We appreciate the time she took to train and transition Kim Kelliher as the new ELC liaison.

We continually have a need for seasonal clothing and bedding and ask that you keep us in mind when cleaning your closets. We are blessed and give thanks for your time and prayers.

Amy Gordon
Neighbors Helping Neighbors Clothes Closet Coordinator

A BIG THANK YOU to Bruce Meister & Andy Mullendore for all the technology work they do at ELC. A special thanks from the office staff for the new computer!

MOUNT HOREB AREA BLOOD DRIVE will be held on Wednesday, March 10 from 10am-3pm at ELC.

For an appointment, please contact (800) 448-3543 or visit www.redcrossblood.org. As always, walk-ins are welcome. All blood types are needed to ensure a reliable supply for patients. A blood donor card, or driver's license, or two other forms of identification are required at check-in. Eligible donors must be at least 17 years old, or 16 years old with a signed Red Cross parental/guardian consent form where state permits, must weigh at least 110 pounds and be in general good health.

SARAH CIRCLE will continue to meet each month on the third Tuesday at 7 pm via Zoom. For these dates, we will be discussing the Rob Bell book: Everything Is Spiritual: March 16th & April 20th. In May we will hopefully meet outdoors again. 😊
