GOWNS AND SLEEPERS NEEDED IN NOVEMBER

Did you know when you donate items for Lutheran World Relief, they are distributed across the globe to persons in desperate situations? Can you imagine caring for a newborn without sleepers, diapers, or soap and towels? We can't either. So, we'll be asking you, in the newsletters throughout the next year, for specific items we need to complete next year's kits. Garage sales and thrift stores are good resources. Items must be clean and in good repair. Sizes up to size 2, please. In November, we are focused on Gowns or Sleepers, long or short sleeved. There is a bin in Fellowship Hall near the coffee station. The entire list of needed items is shown below: Lightweight cotton shirts, no onesies, please Jacket, sweater, sweatshirt with or without hood Individually wrapped bars of soap (multi packs are great) Hand Towels, darker color Infant Socks

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

The church council is in the process of revamping the process for volunteers to serve our community and families during funerals. Many will remember that funeral lunches were organized and staffed by volunteers with the Women of ELC. That group has disbanded. We would like to continue the tradition of caring for families during these significant events.

We are in need of volunteers to organize and staff funeral luncheons.

- To start we need 2 (or more) people to serve as coordinators. One coordinator is needed per funeral to assist with planning the luncheon and oversee the event in person from start to finish. We are planning to have 2 or more volunteers so that they can switch off and on as needed.
- We further plan to establish a group of regular volunteers to work before, during and after funeral lunches. These volunteers will work from 1-2 hours the evening before or the day of the funeral.
- Your offers to help will depend on your availability and willingness to help.
- Volunteering is open to everyone: families, teens, men and women.
- Please sign up online using Sign Up Genius (found on the ELC web page) or call the church office so that we can have a list of volunteers ready to go.
- You are not obligating yourself to work every funeral or a certain period of time. We will send out requests to the volunteer list as needed to staff funerals.
- We are open to suggestions, comments and other ideas as we continue this important tradition.
