CRAFTS BY NICK - Nick has many decorative pieces in the Narthex for springtime. Thank you to Nick for donating to our youth opportunities.

BABY KITS - COLLECTIONS NEEDED:

Our youth and members of Rebecca Circle are teaming together to collect and assemble the baby kits which will be sent to Lutheran World Relief this fall. Items should be in good condition, clean and in infant sizes no larger than 36 months. Each month, we will focus on one/two items, so we have many kits to make in July, during our Mission Week. There is a bin in Fellowship Hall near the coffee station for your donations.

MARCH - Long or Short Sleeved gowns or sleepers and Baby Socks.

MARCH BENEVOLENCE - This month's benevolence is supporting our Youth Summer Programming. Donations this month will help fund our summer programs (VBS, Day Camp, and our Local Service Week) and allow us to support our campers to Sugar Creek with scholarships. Besides monetary donations, we can use volunteers to help lead VBS/Day Camp, drivers for service week, and help during our fundraisers. Thank you for all the various ways that ELC supports our youth.

LENTEN WORSHIP – 15th -11 am worship followed by lunch in Fellowship Hall. 6pm potluck in Fellowship Hall, 7pm worship

March 15th Obedience and Preservation - Ironically, the true examples of repentance and obedience in Jonah are the foreigners—first the penitent sailors and then the soft-hearted Assyrians. Both gain a new lease on life by fearing and obeying God. The prophet stands in contrast to them. Disobedience leads him to the realm of death.

PRE-PLAN FOR PEACE OF MIND
Sunday, March 19th - After worship in fellowship hall

- Why should we make plans for the end of our lives?
- What things should we consider when making choices about a funeral or burial?
- What can we do to make things easier for our families when we die?
- How can we make our wishes known?

Pastor John, along with Melissa Thiessen of Gunderson Funeral Home will help lead us through some of the questions we might want to consider in making plans for the time of our passing. This is an opportunity to ask questions, make plans, and consider what mistakes we might avoid, as well as what would be beneficial for our loved ones when our life on this earth comes to an end.

Grab a cup of coffee and join us after worship.

NHN ANNUAL MEETING ON MARCH 21

Neighbors Helping Neighbors welcomes you to our annual meeting, where community resource hub leaders will express our gratitude for your support, talk about the impact we've made collectively in the past year, look ahead to our plans for 2023 and ask for your suggestions on how we can address unmet needs in the area.
