March 29th Jesus a new Jonah - Jonah is the ironic foil to every other human and non-human character in the book—all of whom obey God without question or protest. In Matt 8:23-27, Jesus exemplifies peace in the thick of disruption. Disruptions have a way of exposing things that are otherwise buried beneath the surface. The onset of a violent storm lays bare the disciples' lack of trust. But it also simultaneously exposes Jesus for who he is: The Lord of creation who stops the storm and saves his followers.

INREACH/OUTREACH will again be collecting birthday party supplies for Neighbors Helping Neighbors. Collection will be in fellowship hall by our coffee nook. Items in need are birthday gift bags, tablecloths, balloons, party hats, party favors, candy or anything that you feel would make a child's birthday party special. Plates, napkins and forks are also needed. All of the previously received bags have been used up, and were greatly appreciated! Thank you for your continued support with this worthwhile project.
