A Note from PASTOR JOHN

All the Saints

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love towards all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. – Ephesians 1:15-16*

Each year we pause on the first Sunday in November to remember all the saints. Immediately our thoughts go to the white candles on the altar which signify those from our church family that have passed away in the last year.

The memories of those dear friends are bittersweet. We are thankful for their presence in our lives, but we mourn their absence. It is a good thing to share both the joy and the loss those memories bring. But I would suggest that we might spend at least as much energy on the red candles – those which we light in honor of the new lives of those baptized in the past year. Notice that when Paul wrote to the Ephesians about the love toward the saints, he wasn't just talking about those who have died. Saints are the living, breathing people who make up this body of Christ.

We need to dedicate ourselves each year to the nurture of those who are coming to the faith, and even more to see that there are more and more red candles each year – signifying a growing, vital church family. They won't simply be the infants born into earthly families. We need to be reaching out to our community. Investing in the lives of the people who surround us. Sharing the love that has sustained the saints before us, so that it will sustain another generation.

Paul concludes the passage with this hope; "I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him,¹⁸ so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints,¹⁹ and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power."

Is Change Good or Bad?

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God

~~ Revelation 21: 1-2~~

From my office window I have been able to watch the leaves slowly change over the last two months. At first, the very tips of the highest leaves were the barest hint of red, but now the gradient has shifted downwards, bringing browns and yellows to join the reds and greens together. Can you tell that Autumn is my favorite season yet?

One of the main reasons I love this season is because of how much change there is. Change, for me, is a delightful thing. Leaves, temperatures, flavors, and scents all change, and that's just perfect for someone like me. Change means that there are new things to discover and explore, and it gives a chance to celebrate the differences and growth.

But I also know that change can be scary. New seasons bring unknowns, uncertainties, and a feeling of being unprepared for what's ahead. We shift our liturgies with the seasons, and it's uncomfortable to not be able to sing along without watching the slides for some. For just a moment, I would like you all to consider how you react to change. Is it frightening for you? Is it joyful? Once you've identified how you feel, embrace it! Change is change, and we do not have to give it a label of good or bad. It can simply be.

God's peace be with you all, my friends.

AGAPE

Autumn greetings from Agape,

The month of November will have the students learning about farms, farm animals, tractors, and Thanksgiving. Teaching the children about ways to give thanks is always a special treat for the teaching team! We look forward to holding parent – teacher conferences in early November so we can get to know our families. As the cooler weather arrives, the teachers will include lessons about putting on all our warm weather layers so we can continue to have fun playing outside!

The board recently wrapped up the Sweepstakes fundraiser. Keep an eye out for prize winners in the weekly church bulletin and the December newsletter. A big thanks to everyone who participated!

The teachers, board of directors and myself are so thankful for your continued support of the preschool and its ongoing ministry.

TREASURER'S REPORT

Prepared October 6, 2023

As of September 30, we had $1,284 in the general fund and outstanding liabilities of $6,307, resulting in a general fund deficit of $5,023. To help cover the difference, we have shifted some expenses to relevant designated funds, including music and utilities costs for the internship program. This is a way of accomplishing the council's direction to use the designated funds to cover our general-fund shortfall, but of course it does not resolve the underlying gap between our income and our expenses. Our general fund has lost $23,228 since the start of the year.

In happier news, the mortgage will have one partial payment remaining after the October payment, and we have a donor who has volunteered to fund the payoff. The mortgage will be retired in time for the annual meeting!

Designated fund expenses this month included $397 for utilities from the intern fund, and $178 for music. Income included $198 for youth, $120 for the internship, and $109 unspecified. Building fund expenses of $405 went to Ball Electric for the installation of the new phone network.

Respectfully submitted by Ben Brothers, October 6, 2023

BENEVOLENCE

Addressing the Middle East humanitarian crisis

When the Social Action Ministry Team created the 2023 Benevolence Program schedule, we intentionally left November open, because a need often emerges through the course of the year.

The explosion of violence in the ongoing standoff between Israel and Hamas has created a massive humanitarian crisis that we don't expect to ease off anytime soon. So, Social Action has decided to focus this month's contributions toward Lutheran Disaster Response, which has a longstanding relationship with partners in the region.

Most notably, this includes the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Jordan and the Holy Land and Augusta Victoria Hospital, which began operations in Jerusalem after the 1948 war that followed the establishment of Israel. Today, most of the patients served by AVH continue to be in social need and seeking life-saving specialized care.

We'll earmark our donations to be used exclusively in this region, amid this conflict.

ELCA Presiding Bishop Elizabeth Eaton has issued a letter of solidarity to Bishop Dr. Sani-Ibrahim Azar of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Jordan and the Holy Land. In it, she writes,

"I encourage the people of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America to unite in prayer for the families of innocent civilians whose lives were lost, as well as pray for healing for all the injured, fearful and traumatized.

"I pledge our accompaniment and support to you as the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Jordan and the Holy Land and its ministries provide critical and timely assistance (psychological and otherwise) to those affected by this war."

Here's what you can do:

Pray: Please pray for people in the Middle East who have been impacted by the conflict. May God's healing presence give them peace and hope in their time of need.

Connect: To learn more about the situation and the ELCA's response, check the Lutheran Disaster Response blog on the ELCA website. Also, "like" Lutheran Disaster Response on Facebook, follow @ELCALDR on Twitter and follow @ELCA_LDR on Instagram.

THE GIVING TREE NEIGHBORS HELPING NEIGHBORS

The Giving Tree of Mt Horeb has become part of the Neighbors Helping Neighbors family! The Giving Tree has been running an annual throw blanket drive for many years which is again being held during the month of November at ELC and several other locations in Mt Horeb. The throws are gifted during the Giving Tree's annual distribution of Christmas gifts to area residents, and any leftover blankets will be distributed during open hours at NHN's Clothes Closet in December.

There is a special need for throw blankets, which measure about 4 feet by 6 feet. That's a popular size because they're versatile, fit people of all ages, and are easy to store away in the summer.

Please bring blankets to the new Donation Station in the Narthex. NHN will also accept monetary donations to purchase blankets and other winter clothing and accessories. You can send checks to NHN at 102 E. Lincoln St Mount Horeb, WI, 53572.

Thank you for your continued support of NHN, which provides food, relief services and gently used clothing, footwear and bedding to our neighbors in need at no cost.

For more info on NHN, visit mthorebneighbors.org, check out the Facebook page, email them at info@mthorebneighbors.org or call 608-437-6114.
