A Note from Living in God's Promises

PASTOR JOHN

God's promises are at the core of the witness of Scripture, but often we live in the in-between space between the anticipation of what might be possible and the inheritance of God's goodness. This fall we will spend several weeks looking at the promises of God's goodness, that seem impossible in the sight of the world, but are always possible in God's reign.

We'll have a focus on the gospel reading for worship each week plus an after-worship Bible Study time that will walk through God's promises to Israel at the time of the exodus. Plan to join us each week as we explore how we live in these promises today!

AGAPE

Agape greetings and blessings to you all!

We are one month into our school year and having a great time! All the students are learning many new skills, routines and doing a wonderful job working together! The teachers and I are honored to provide this outreach ministry to so many children in the Mt. Horeb community and to many of our surrounding neighbors also.

The month of October will cover activities and curriculum about apples, leaves, farming, Halloween, and fire safety. The visit from MHPD in early October will bring lots of excitement and many smiles! Our students will have the opportunity to sit in a giant firetruck and try on firefighter gear. We will also hold our school pictures in October.

Keep an eye out for a new fundraising opportunity to support the preschool. We will be selling Kwik Trip Car Wash cards in the upcoming months. More details and pricing will be available soon.

Wishing you all a wonderful October!

Fundraising for the new roof is going well. We've increased the building capital fund to $16,000, and we've received commitments for an additional $25,000. We need about $75,000 in the building capital fund, so we're about 55% of the way there. We'd like to hit our goal by the annual meeting.

But the general fund is in bad shape. After losing $8,761 in July, we lost another $8,148 in August. The cash flow statement includes $5,000 transferred from the designated fund. We also needed to make transfers in May ($3,500) and June ($2,500), meaning that our adjusted general fund income for the year is $11,000 less than the reported cash flow. The adjusted numbers are shown in the Budget Tracking chart.

At the end of the month, the general fund had $300 in cash, $3,191 in the bank, and $70 pending in flex-system reimbursements, against $7,091 in outstanding checks and $1,596 in outstanding tax liabilities, resulting in the reported balance of -$5,127.

In addition to the $5,000 transferred to the general fund, designated fund expenses in August included $195 for camperships, $58 for the kitchen, and $110 in petty cash. Income included $187 for youth, $100 for praise worship, $90 for Neighbors Helping Neighbors, $20 for the internship program, $20 for music, and $163 unspecified.

BENEVOLENCE

Jail Ministry continues to expand its mission and impact

The Madison Area Jail Ministry has been providing spiritual and emotional support at the Dane County Jail for more than 50 years – and our area’s Lutheran churches have been among its strongest and most loyal supporters.

We at ELC have provided funding for the Jail Ministry for the majority of that time, and throughout all 12 years of the Benevolence Program. We’ve seen MAJM continue to evolve and expand its focus and support.

The No. 1 focus is the men and women who are incarcerated there – people who are brothers, sisters, fathers, mothers, children, spouses. When the Jail Ministry began in the late 1960s, roughly 100 people were housed in the jail. Today, two chaplains and a group of volunteers addresses the needs of more than 650 people.

And more than just one person is affected when someone goes to jail.

In most cases, the family and friends of someone who is incarcerated is doing time in their own way - dealing with the fallout emotionally, spiritually, financially. MAJM offers support and encouragement to families and often serves as the connection point with those who are behind bars.

Then there are the deputies and jail staff, whose stress is compounded by staffing shortages and trauma exposure. MAJM helps them build a sense of resilience, find meaning in their work and the peace of mind to focus on the well-being of those in jail.

In recent years, MAJM has increased its support network for military veterans who find themselves in jail. And recently, MAJM initiated a program called New Beginnings, which aims to stop the cycle of recidivism by providing people who’ve recently been released from jail with a consistent structure of accountability, encouragement and spiritual support.

There are many ways to support MAJM, which is the October mission for Benevolence. Here’s what you can do:

Tutor: Are you passionate about a particular school subject and interested in educating someone interested in helping someone learn so they can better themselves? If so, you can provide one-on-one tutoring for the men and women in the Dane County Jail. To learn more about the program, email info@madisonjailministry.org.

BENEVOLENCE Cont.

Mentor: Research shows that community support during the first 6 months after individuals are released from jail or prison is critical to their success. You could start a New Beginnings Team, a group of volunteers who provide emotional and spiritual support to formerly incarcerated individuals during weekly meetings .

Connect: To learn more about MAJM, visit their website (madisonjailministry.org) and sign up for their newsletter, and "like" their Facebook page.

Pray: Support this "ministry of presence" by praying for Chaplain Todd, the men and women who are incarcerated, and the men and women responsible for their safety.

Give: You donate financially by:

- Mail: Send a check to ELC and note "Benevolence" in the memo
- Online: Visit the ELC website and click "Give"
- Digitally: Download the VANCO MOBIL FAITH ENGAGEMENT APP, or text "Benevolence" to 608-400-0183 with the amount you wish to give.

Thank you for your support of Benevolence!

ANNUAL MEETING – NOVEMBER 10, 2024

This is a reminder that our annual meeting will be held immediately after our Church service on November 10 – approximately 10:00 a.m. Please make plans to attend, and if you are a ministry leader for one of our many ministries, please submit to Nancy as soon as possible a summary of what your role is for our Church. This summary is important because to newcomers and other members the titles of ministries (committees) can be a bit vague, and a detailed description might inspire others to want to participate in what you have done and hope to do. Remember, there is also a packet with ministries listed on the table by the front entrance to the Church. An involved congregation makes for an active, exciting spiritual journey. Mark your calendars today and plan to attend the meeting on November 10 and let your vote be counted.

A listing of nominees running for various committees will be available in the November Steeple Echoes. The nominating committee is working hard to fill all slots that need people to serve. Please be open to their requests and consider calling or emailing Margie Kahl of the nominating committee to volunteer rather than waiting to be contacted. Her phone number and email contact information is: 608 437-5341 or mkahl@mhtc.net. I'm sure the committee would love to hear from you!

At this time, we need the following for the ballot:

- 5 Council members
- 4 Nominating committee members
- 2 Personnel committee members
(knowledge of human resources is needed)

Thank you,

Vicky Rosenbaum
Council Vice President

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

PLEASE CONSIDER SAYING "YES"!

Evangelical Lutheran Church is a family of faith. In a family we all work together to accomplish daily life and keep us moving forward. Similar to a family unit, ELC needs leaders who step up to make decisions for the good of the family. Each fall we elect members to serve in these leadership roles. Thank you to so many who have served this year and over all the years of our congregation

Prior to ELC's annual meeting in November, the Nominating Committee will be making calls to fill these leadership roles. Please consider answering the call with a hearty YES, remembering also that serving is a form of worship, a way to express gratitude for what Jesus has done for us.

1 Peter 4:10-11 says, "Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms... so that in all things God may be praised through Jesus Christ"

SOCIAL ACTION

Lutheran World Relief

Thanks to John Martin, the 164 Quilts, 63 Baby Care Kits, and 110 School Kits were delivered on September 14th to the Wisconsin and Southern train yard in Madison. They will make their way to the LWR warehouse in Maryland to be repackaged and shipped around the world. The new year of production has already begun for the quilting group which has adopted the name "Knot Heads" for fun and fellowship. Consider visiting them if you are available on a Thursday morning.

LWR always asks for a donation to the Shipping and Distribution fund. Like everyone else, they have experienced a rise in costs. At $2.80 per Quilt, $2.85 per School Kit, and $3.10 per Baby Care Kit, our shipping total comes to $968.30. Contributions marked "LWR Shipping" can be placed in the offering or sent to the church office.

As always, Thank you for 'reaching out to share God's love with all people.'
