The Name of Jesus

“After eight days had passed, it was time to circumcise the child; and he was called Jesus, the name given by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.” - Luke 2:20

The Christmas story ends with the shepherds ‘glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.’ – Luke 2:19b. And for many of us, that’s where we leave it in our memories for another year.

But of course, Jesus’ story continues. January first is the eighth day of Christmas (the 12 days begin at Christmas and lead up to Epiphany on January 6th). On the eighth day it was tradition for a faithful Jewish family to present a male child for circumcision, and an official declaration of this child’s name.

In Matthew 1, in a dream an angel told Joseph about this child, and instructed him: “you are to name him Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins.” - Matthew 1:21

In the eyes of the world that day, this was probably a small, seemingly insignificant event, but it was the announcement of Jesus’ presence. We begin the year by celebrating this good news.

All names are powerful, but Jesus’ name is the most powerful of all. Being able to call someone by name means you know something important about that person, and being called by name means you are known. On this day we celebrate the privilege and the power of calling God by name, as well as how deeply we know God and are known by God, through Jesus.

We also celebrate that we are known by name to the God who loves us. Take this powerful announcement into the new year with you, and be aware of the everyday events which show the continued presence of Jesus in our world today.

God’s Peace,

We've seen an uptick in giving over the last several months, and that trend continued in November. Income of $33,934 left us with a general fund balance of $5,573, up $4,922 from last month.

Fundraising for our large capital projects continues. We've received gifts or commitments for $50,228, leaving us over two-thirds of the way to our goal of $75,000.

We spent some of those funds — $5,845 — last month to repair the boiler. A new roof for approximately $48,200, and water mitigation in the basement for approximately $12,300 are the other two outstanding projects, and the council has approved spending some of Rose Klir's estate gift to fix the 4th A/C unit in the fellowship hall. The estimated cost for that repair is $4,750.

Designated fund income last month included $450 for benevolence, $387 for youth, and $46 unspecified.

Respectfully submitted by Ben Brothers, December 6, 2024

BENEVOLENCE

The importance of connections across the hemisphere

You might've had the opportunity this summer to hear from the 30 of us parents and teenagers who ventured to New Orleans for the ELCA Youth Gathering, a spectacle of sight and sound that takes place every three years – barring a pandemic, that is. It's a pilgrimage of sorts, and a chance for Lutherans young and middle-aged from around the country to meet and worship with each other.

Within 30 minutes of arriving near the NBA arena where the Youth Gathering was held, we saw and met people from states as far-flung as North Carolina and Oregon, and as familiar as Minnesota and Iowa. Then there was the group from South Dakota that included the pastor of a church where our own Micah Sieg had served his internship!

The entire trip underscored the value of, and power in, faith-based connections.

While we don't often get to physically interact with the members of Divine Savior Lutheran Church in Catano, Puerto Rico, thanks to the Benevolence Program, they are always on our minds, and we share a special affinity with them. Many members of ELC have been able to visit this vibrant congregation across the bay from San Juan, and have been awed by the hospitality they received and the appreciation they show for our financial support.

Our connection transcends the differences in our daily existence. We have forged a strong bond that benefits both congregations.

Divine Savior traditionally leads off our Benevolence lineup every calendar year, and once again we'll raise funds for them this January. Several years ago, we decided to double down on that commitment by not only raising funds during a dedicated month but also allocating 10% of proceeds in the other months toward our partner congregation. Over time, that has translated on average to more than $2,000 per year to support Divine Savior's community-minded ministry.

Here's what you can do to support Divine Savior throughout January:

Pray: Support the work of our partner church by keeping their congregation and the community of Catano in your prayers.

COUNCIL

As we begin a new year I would like to offer a word of thanks to all the people who make ELC such a great worship community. From the employees to the volunteers, we have a large number who work tirelessly to keep the worship a truly remarkable experience, the building in great shape, and the communications current and informative.

As a Reconciling in Christ (RIC) congregation do we strive to make our church as welcoming as possible? Is each and every one of us talking to those around us, and especially are we talking to those we do not recognize or know? In the past I introduced myself to a father and daughter who I thought were visiting, only to find out they have attended, and are and have been members for years. We simply attend worship at different times and days. Was I embarrassed, yes, but hopefully this encounter helped us both to know the importance of talking to each other and growing as a community of faith working together to grow God's grace and forgiveness.

And finally, the importance of ELC remaining vital and, an important part of the Mt Horeb community, is that we are financially sound. For those who didn't receive or read Pastor John's note in the last Steeple Echoes, I would like to reiterate and copy those words of wisdom.

"Multiple news sources estimated that last year Americans spent an average of between $1000 and $1500 on Christmas, with total spending approaching one trillion dollars. It is a long way from a quiet manger in Bethlehem, accompanied by a few shepherds.

For perspective, while we spend freely for a holiday named for Christ's birth, according to our annual report, more than half of our givers share less than $750 all year for the ongoing work of Christ's church in the world?

Let each of us review our giving and see if we can all do a little more, as we are able, to increase our sharing of what God has freely given us.

Thank you,

Mark Mostrom
Council President

BOOK CLUB

Have you noticed that things are starting to look a little different in the church library? The RIC committee applied and was awarded a generous grant from the Mt Horeb Community Foundation. This grant will pay for new books. Work has already begun to update the library.

Outdated titles have been removed to make way for new materials. Stocking of new books has already started and will continue throughout the coming months.

With this in mind, we're hoping to start a new book club. Please consider joining us. The first meeting will be on Sunday January 19th after the worship service. We'll talk about when and how often to meet and books to discuss.
